

BA (Hons) Business and Computing

Anglia Ruskin University

Qualification

On successful completion of the programme you will be awarded a BA (Hons) Business and Computing

Awarding Body

Anglia Ruskin University

Course Description

You will gain knowledge, understanding and a range of practical skills relating to both commercial and non-commercial sectors, and in a variety of geographical and cultural settings. In particular, you will develop managerial and professional level skills and understanding across the two related disciplines of Business and Computing.

Mode

Online distance learning

Course Content (Modules)

Level 4

- Skills for Learning in Business & Computing
- Understanding the Business Environment
- People & Organisations
- Business Analysis
- Information Systems and Organisations
- Computer Technology

Level 5

- Managing Across Cultures
- Human Resource Management
- Research Methods in Business and Computing
- System Analysis & Design
- Strategic Information Systems

Level 6

- Applied Computing Project
- Skills of Employability & The Workplace
- Contemporary Management Issues
- Strategic Management
- Understanding Systems
- Management in IT

Assessment

This course will comprise a mixture of in-module assessments of portfolio submissions, presentations, time-constrained examinations including the submission of portfolios of self-reflective evidence and research reports/dissertation.

Duration of Programme

This course is expected to be completed within 4.5 years. However, our online distance learning students have flexibility in setting their own pace of study, which means that the course can be completed in a minimum period of 3 years.

Entry Requirements

For the full degree:

- Two subjects at GCE A level or equivalent, plus passes at grade C or above in three subjects at GCSE level or equivalent; OR:
- Completion of a recognised Access Programme (or equivalent).
- English language ability equivalent to IELTS 6.0, where the medium of schooling was not English.

Applications without these qualifications may be considered on their own merits, and you are encouraged to submit an application.

What's Included

RDI's virtual learning environment ilearn is used to deliver all resources for this course including:

- Study materials - Access electronic copies of your learning materials and important information, such as assessment instructions, whenever and wherever you are.
- Tutor support - Tutors use live chats and forums to stimulate discussions, request input and highlight external sources.
- External resources - Links to external sources can include key journal articles, your university's online library, sites of topical interest, etc.
- Discussion with other students - Forums allow students to come together, share thoughts and ideas and you can initiate topics that you want to discuss with your fellow students.

Workload

We recommend an average of 12-15 hours study time per week for this programme.

Exemptions

Exemptions may be considered for this course and are considered on an individual basis.

How to Apply

In addition to a completed application form:

- Copies of your relevant certificates and/or transcripts
- Personal statement (350-500 words)
- One suitable reference. Please note we can only accept academic and/or professional work references.
- Copy of your CV detailing your work history (covering the last five years)
- Proof of English language ability (IELTS or TOEFL), if English is not your first language or you have not previously studied in English

W Apply Online
Visit our website: www.rdi.co.uk/apply

@ Email Us
Email admissions@rdi.co.uk

☎ Call Us
Contact us today on FREEphone
0800 COURSES / 0800 268 7737

What You Could Study Next

- BA (hons) Business and Law
- BA (hons) Business
- BSc (hons) Computing